

AEA Highlights

- » Membership meetings with expert presenters and panelists on topics of current interest. These membership meetings also offer informal networking, which in turn often leads to critical information and opportunities for collaboration.
- » The CEO Leadership Forum Peer Learning Network for CEOs is a customized peer-learning network that provides collaborative learning opportunities, personal executive development and ongoing support. It helps participants to address pertinent issues and enhance leadership competency.
- » The CEO Leadership Forum Leadership Development Program for Staff helps nonprofit staff with leadership potential as identified and recommended by their CEO. Based around the concept of peer learning, the diverse nature of the group contributes to the learning process.
- » Issues such as the County Budget Crisis and the October 2006 Snowstorm have led to conversations with executives on the impact to the non-profit sector, and how to respond collectively to address critical human services needs.

Our Mission

“The United Way Agency Executives Association seeks to enhance the quality of life in WNY by creating and sustaining a network of agency executives who work together to build the capacities of the organizations they manage. This is accomplished through networking, information sharing, learning, skill building, advocacy on issues and collaboration opportunities for its members.”

Our Goals

- » To continually improve delivery of human services in Western New York
- » To keep CEOs apprised of relevant, current, and emerging trends affecting not-for-profits
- » To share thoughts and ideas on common concerns and work collaboratively to respond to important issues.
- » To create opportunities for accessing and sharing resources among agencies

Eligibility

Membership in the AEA is open to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of 501(c)(3) agencies receiving any funding (including donor designations) through the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County.

Membership Dues

In order to maintain the resources that we need to be successful, the membership is keeping this modest yearly dues schedule:

$25.00 small agency
$60.00 medium agency
$100.00 large agency

Agency size is defined as having budgets of:

Small
under $1,000,000

Medium
$1,000,000 - $5,000,000

Large
over $5,000,000
